

Sunday, June 12, from 2-4 p.m. at Marcum Park

Nurturing Children by Engaging Fathers

116 Dayton Street, Hamilton, OH 45011

This event is being held during the annual Pathway to Hope Fatherhood picnic. Hamburgers and hot dogs will be available.

Participants are also asked to attend a Zoom meeting on Monday, June 21, at 5:00 p.m. to share

how you utilized your activity kit
(participants are sent a web link).

A limited number of activity kits will be available. Reserve your kit today.

To register for your FREE activity kit, contact Ohio State University Extension Educator Heather Reister at
reister.6@osu.edu

CFAES

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION
FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

Nurturing Children by Engaging Fathers

Games, Intergenerational Lessons on Relationship Building and Strengthening Families. Recipes and Activities for the Father and Child to do Together at Home.

This program helps educate fathers about child development and provides strategies for supporting children in engaging and interactive ways. Fathers learn strategies for improved communication and developmentally appropriate interactions with their child as well as participating in activities designed to reinforce affection and attachment.

Register Today

Your FREE Activity Kit Awaits You!

Contact OSU Extension Educator Heather Reister at reister.6@osu.edu

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF FOOD, AGRICULTURAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

hutler.osu.edu

